LISTING OF TEXAS
CITIES, TOWNS, COMMUNITIES, AND RAILROAD STATIONS BY COUNTIES

LEGEND

⊙	County Seat
*	Post Office (Reference: 1973 Postal Guide)
	Rural Station of another Post Office
#	Railroad Station (Reference: Texas Lines Mileage Circular No. 9-Q) (Prefix indicates number of stations in city or town)
A	Abandoned
C	Church
S	School
Com	Community
Cem	Cemetery
NL	Not Located
RM	Rand McNally
RRS	Railroad Station
ARRS	Abandoned Railroad Station
ELKHART	Incorporations are capitalized

Population figures for incorporated cities and for towns of 1,000 or more inhabitants were obtained from the 1970 Census. Other population figures were obtained from Texas Municipal League (TML), for incorporations and either The Texas Almanac (TA), or Rand Mc Nally (RM) for unincorporations.

The spelling of the names of cities and towns was based on authority of Postal Guide, Texas Lines Mileage Circular No. 9-Q, Reference Material Files 6 and 19, Rand Mc Nally, Texas Almanac and other sources. Every effort has been made and will continue to be made in the future, to verify by field investigation during each field inventory or by correspondence, the true spelling of all place names. Each small community, school, church, cemetery or community hall will be identified by the field party for possible inclusion in this list and on the county maps.

Parenthetical remarks usually mean that the name referred to will not be shown on the map as a city or town. An exception is that of giving information about the town such as a population breakdown between counties or noting that the town is in two or more counties or that it is known by another name, etc. When the remarks "community", "RRSta", "school", "church", "in X city", etc. are used, the place is not to be identified by a town symbol but will normally be identified by the name of the community, RR station, school, or church. A place having only a church and school is identified by the school name.

Corrections will be called to the attention of the Inventory Manager as noted.
